Trevor A. Putrah is the President and COO of KGP Logistics, a national diversity supplier of supply chain services and telecommunications equipment. His responsibilities cover all aspects of KGP's business.

Trevor joined KGP in 1998 and has held several positions, including Operations Manager and Vice President of Operations. In these positions, Trevor led KGP's effort to establish a formal quality system and become TL9000 and ISO9001:2000 certified, which included acting as the Management Representative for KGP's Quality System.

Currently, Trevor is serving as the Chair of the Executive Board of QuEST Forum and is leading the Strategic Member Recruitment and Retention Committee (formerly named Executive Board Project 3), which is focused on membership growth and retention. Trevor serves on the Board of Directors of KGP, where he holds the position of Secretary. In addition, he is on the Board of Directors of Reliance Bank and the Advisory Committee of Shattuck St. Mary's School; an independent distinguished college preparatory school in Faribault, Minnesota.

Trevor holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from The Ohio State University, where he majored in Production and Operations Management. Additionally, in June of 2006 Trevor received a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Minnesota. He resides in Faribault, Minnesota with his wife Caren and their two daughters.
